

For every 20 minutes you read, color in a dog bowl.
Grown-ups, color in a dog bowl for every 20 minutes you read to your baby or toddler.

When you have colored in all the dog bowls, you've read for 900 minutes!

DCL.ORG/SUMMER-READING

Summer Fun for All Ages Through July 31

DID YOU REGISTER ONLINE?

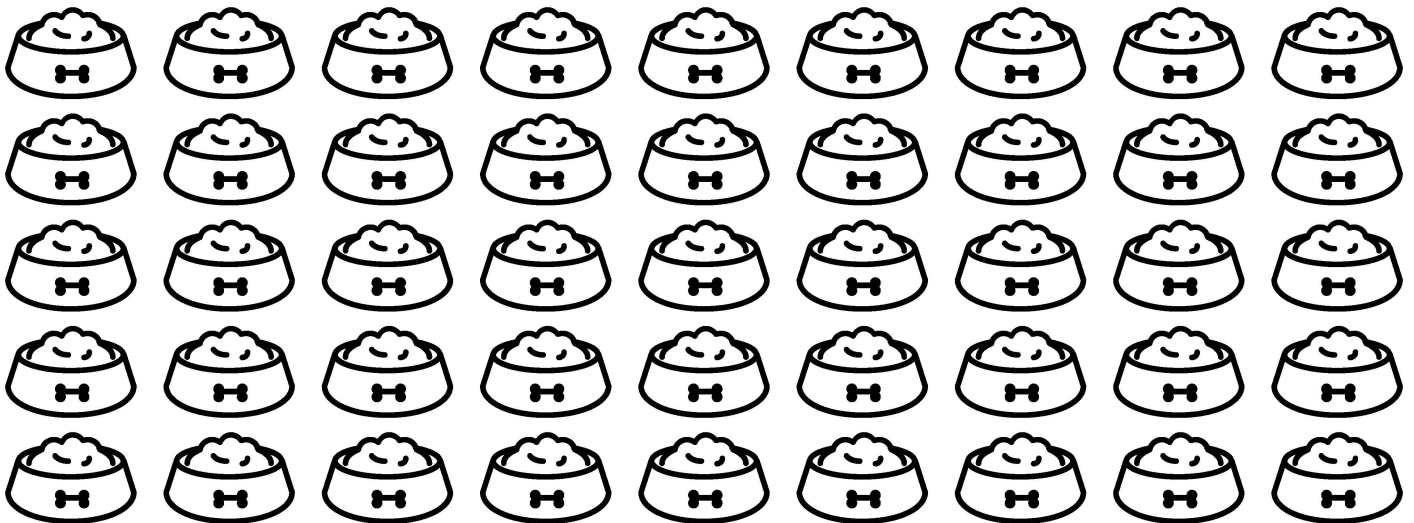

Be sure to register online to track your reading electronically and qualify for fun prizes. (You can also use this log to track your reading.) To track online, scan this code or visit <https://dclibraries.beanstack.org>.

CHOOSE YOUR OWN CHALLENGE

You can also choose your own age-appropriate challenge! Shoot for 500 minutes of reading, read one chapter book a week, three picture books a day, or 20 pages a day. It's up to you! When the fun is done, visit us to pick up your prize while supplies last. Kids get a new book!

READ FOR YOUR SCHOOL!

Schools registering the most students for The Dog Days of Summer (as a percentage of total 2022-2023 enrollment) will receive $500 from the Douglas County Libraries Foundation. We'll reward the top schools in each of four categories: elementary, middle, high, and charter/other. Be sure to tell your friends and classmates to sign up!

HELP US MEET OUR COMMUNITY GOAL!

When readers in Douglas County read a total of 9 million minutes, the Douglas County Libraries Foundation will donate $1,000 to Guide Dogs for the Blind. Add your minutes to our total to help!
