

Lead Material Shelver Volunteer

Position Overview and Impact

Douglas County Libraries elevates our community by inspiring a love of reading, discovery and connection. Volunteers are an invaluable resource in improving the quality of living in Douglas County.

Lead shelving volunteers supplement the work of the Material Handling Technicians. In addition to assuring customers are provided with materials in a timely manner by placing returned materials back on the bookshelves, the Lead Material Shelver Volunteers trains and guides other volunteers on the shelving process.

Key Responsibilities

- Facilitates and performs training of volunteers for shelving duties
- Performs work that involves the handling and shelving of library materials in an accurate and timely manner
- Accurately demonstrates shelving and maintains assigned library materials in accordance with circulation procedures
- Maintains the general order of library materials and performs other circulation functions and activities in support of library services
- Presents a positive image of the library in communications and appearance while performing duties in both the public and staff areas

Qualifications

- Ability to lift, bend and reach
- Ability to teach, train, and guide others
- Ability to work independently as well as interacts with customers and staff
- Accuracy
- Continual physical activity including constant material handling, standing, walking, close visual work with proximity to automated handling equipment
- Excellent organizational skills
- Must have some library knowledge and experience
- Regular exposure to moderate noise levels and residual dirt and dust

Training and Support Provided

- Orientation to the library
- Training in shelving procedures

Benefits of Volunteering

- Our volunteers enjoy personal growth and interaction, a sense of community involvement, potential physical benefits of activity, work experience, and development of job skills.
- Community volunteers are key contributors to the success of our libraries.
- We provide a safe, pleasant environment and the opportunity to meet people from diverse backgrounds.

Time and Length of Commitment

- Minimum two hours a week for three months
- Shifts are available during the week, evenings and weekends

Staff Connection

- Branch Volunteer Coordinator and/or other assigned staff member

Revised September 2017